

IN THE NEXT ISSUE

The next issue of Cancer Control will focus on oncologic support and care. Among the authors and topics are:

"Integrating Palliative Care in Oncology," by Sharon M. Weinstein, MD, of the Huntsman Cancer Center, Salt Lake City, Utah

"Assessment and Management of Pain in Palliative Care Patients," by Vincent Perron, MD, of the University of South Florida College of Medicine, Tampa, Florida

"Cultural Issues and Ethical Dilemmas in Palliative and End-of-Life Care in Spain," by Juan M. Núñez-Olarte, MD, PhD, of the Hospital General Universitario Gregorio Marañón, and D. Gracia-Guillén, MD, PhD, of the University Complutense, Madrid, Spain

"Enhancing Caregiver Outcomes in Palliative Care," by Ruth McCorkle, PhD, FAAN, and Jeannie V. Pasacrete, PhD, RN, CS, of the School of Nursing at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut

"Palliative Care: An Integrative Approach," by Carlos Sandoval-Cros, MD, of the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, Miami, Florida

"Physician-Assisted Suicide: The Legal Slippery Slope," by Robert Walker, MD, of the University of South Florida College of Medicine, Tampa, Florida

"Myelodysplastic Syndromes in the Elderly" by Hussain I. Saba, MD, of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute, Tampa, Florida

The regular departments in Cancer Control will feature Clinical Research Protocols on Supportive Care, Clinical Reasoning in Oncology, Imaging in Oncology, Ten Best Readings on Supportive Care, and Infections in Oncology. A special report on "HER-2 and Trastuzumab: An Update" by John Horton, MB, ChB, of the Moffitt Cancer Center will also be included.

Cancer Control is accessible on the World Wide Web at <http://www.moffitt.usf.edu/ccjournal>. The CME questions also can be answered online.