

IN THE NEXT ISSUE

---

The next issue of Cancer Control will focus on urologic cancer. Among the topics and authors are:

---

"The Surgical Management of Bladder Carcinoma," by Rafael Carrion, MD, of the University of South Florida, and John Seigne, MB, ChB, of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute

---

"Immunotherapy of Renal Cell Cancer," by Mayer Fishman, MD, PhD, and John Seigne, MB, ChB, of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute

---

"Current Status of Retroperitoneal Lymph Node Dissection and Testicular Cancer: When to Operate," by Richard Foster, MD, and Richard Bihrl, MD, of Indiana University

---

"Cancer of the Penis," by Mariela R. Pow-Sang, MD, Victor Benavente, MD, Julio E. Pow-Sang, MD, Carlos Morante, MD, and Luis Meza, MD, of the Instituto de Enfermedades Neoplasicas, Peru, Mark Baker, MD, of the University of South Florida College of Medicine, and Julio M. Pow-Sang, MD, of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute

---

"Hormonal Therapy for Prostate Cancer Revisited," by Stephen G. Patterson, MD, Lodovico Balducci, MD, and Julio M. Pow-Sang, MD, of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute

---

"Evaluation and Management of Adrenal Masses," by Sergio Gugisch Moreira, Jr, MD, and Julio M. Pow-Sang, MD, of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute

Also included will be Imaging in Oncology, Pathology Update, Ten Best Readings on Urologic Cancer, and Clinical Research Protocols for Urologic Cancer. Look for your issue in July 2002.

Cancer Control is accessible on the World Wide Web at <http://www.moffitt.usf.edu/ccjournal>. The CME questions also can be answered online.