

Patient Accessibility Services

We offer several resources to assist you and your caregiver during your visit.

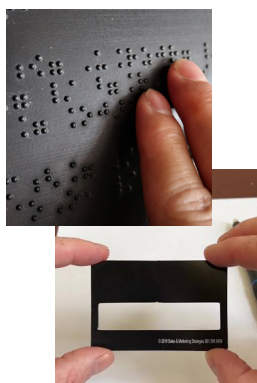

AVAILABLE RESOURCES AT ALL MOFFITT LOCATIONS

Resources available if you are blind or have low-vision.

Alternative format documents:

Available upon request may take several business days. (braille print, large print, accessible PDFs, and audio recordings)

Other tools: Signature guides, page magnifier

Resources available if you have a speech disability

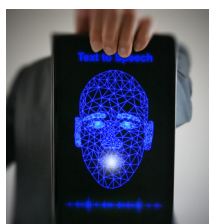

Paper communication board:

Communication through pictures.

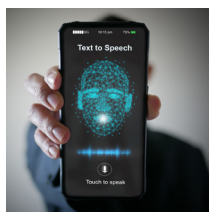

Language and Communication iPad

These iPads and videocarts have applications and features that can assist with communication via applications, text-to-speech feature.

Digital communication board:

The patient can select from a set list of vocabulary on three apps, and the iPad will speak the selected word aloud.

Live Speech: Apple text-to-speech feature, where a patient can type text and the iPad will read it aloud.

Resources available if you are Deaf or Hard of Hearing

ASL interpreters:

American Sign Language (ASL) interpreters are available. Depending on availability interpreting will be done in-person or via a tablet.

Sound amplifier:

An amplification device with a microphone and headphones to listen. (Cannot be used with hearing aids or cochlear implant)

Clear panel window masks

CART transcription services:

Captioning or real time transcriptions of for both virtual and in-person appointments.

Moffitt Cancer Center Patient Accessibility Services

WE HAVE SEVERAL RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO PATIENTS

Resources available if you have a sensory processing difference

Noise cancelling ear muffs

Disposable ear plugs

Disposable sunglasses

Weighted lap pad

Fidget cube

Resources available if you have a mobility disability

Patient lift:

Patient lifts are used to help a patient transfer from their car, wheelchair, bed, or exam table.

Transfer board:

Transfer boards are used to help transfer a patient from a bed or exam table.

Transport:

Wheelchairs and stretchers are used to help transport a patient anywhere within a Moffitt location.

Contact Information
AccessCoordination@Moffitt.org
813-745-1960

*Scan to learn more about
Patient Accessibility Services.*

